

What is Coronavirus?

Coronavirus is a new illness, like flu

- People with Coronavirus have a fever. This means they feel hot.
- People with Coronavirus have a cough.
- People with Coronavirus can have problems breathing.

You can catch Coronavirus

- by being close to people with the virus.
- by being in places where people who have the virus have been.

How to reduce the chance of getting Coronavirus

Always wash your hands with soap and water

- When you get home
- Before you cook
- Before you eat
- After using the toilet
- Before leaving home
- When you get to work or college or school
- After doing any sports

Wash your hands before touching

- Your eyes
- Your nose
- Your mouth

Do not share things you put in your mouth

- Cups
- Bottles
- Drinking straws, knives and forks