Christmas Tree

Good Morning Nicola,

Following on from our discussions regarding the land above, the Project Manager of our Environment and Regeneration department has advised the following;

Planting within the paved area would provide a good focus on the tree, however, this would need to be properly constructed with the paving made good. The species would need to be appropriate and not a fast growing conifer but maybe a higher quality specimen such as a Cedar. Last year mature sycamore trees which were in close proximity to the building were removed due to complaints, so trees should not be planted anywhere within 10-15 metres of the building.

With regards to the dog show, as this is a separate matter I will need to consult with the relevant departments and get back to you.

Many thanks,

Ffion

Good morning Ffion,

Just chasing up to see if there is news on the Christmas tree planting permission, so I can feedback to members at this morning's meeting.

Also, there has been another request if you could seek out permission, Nantyglo and Blaina Town would like to hold a dog show sometime during the summer months (restrictions permitting) and we're thinking of the grounds at St Peter's Church, we have spoken to members within St Church and they have confirmed that we will need permission from BGCBC. Apparently, dog shows have participated in grounds in previous years.

Kind regards

Nicola

Hî Nicola,

Hope you're well.

A colleague of mine has passed your query to me regarding a real Christmas tree being planted at the Southside of Blaina Community Institute.

Please could you mark on the attached plan where you would like to plant the tree.

Many thanks,

Ffion

Dog show

Good afternoon,

Apologies for the delayed response I have been awaiting further information from a colleague.

The deeds show that the ground is a disused burial ground. We have also had discussions with our Environment and Regeneration team who confirmed that there has been no recollection of a dog show taking place within the grounds.

Unfortunately on this occasion the Estates department would not be able to grant permission for a dog show.

Many thanks,

Ffion

Good morning Ffion,

Just wondering if you have received any information with regards to the Town Council having permission to hold a dog show within the grounds of St Peters Church, High Street, Blaina. We have a council meeting a week Tuesday and would like to get information out with the agenda for next Tuesday if that is possible.
